What Is the Program Description?

The Division of Behavioral Health and Recovery (DBHR) provides funds to two providers to provide long-term residential chemical dependency treatment services. Eligibility for the program is based on:

- The felony is not violent, a sex offense or have an enhancement for deadly weapon or firearm or felony DUI or physical control.
- No violent offenses in the last ten years.
- No sex offenses.
- VUCSA violation was only a small quantity (as determined by the judge).
- Offender is not subject to deportation now or during sentencing.
- Standard sentence range is over one year.
- Offender has no more than one DOSA sentence in the last 10 years.

What Role Does the Court Play?

- The court orders an examination to determine addiction and feasibility of treatment.
- Receives the report and, if appropriate, waives imposition of a sentence in the "standard range" and orders either the prison or community residential treatment (CRT) version of DOSA.
- Imposes a community custody period for residential treatment that is one half (½) the midpoint of the range or 24 months (whichever is greater).
- Orders residential treatment option, the treatment period is between three and six months. The court will determine the length of treatment based on reports and recommendations from the treatment provider and the CCO.
- Will notify the residential treatment provider if the reserved bed date is to be cancelled or delayed. The court will then schedule a new bed date, if appropriate.
- Schedules a Progress Hearing during the residential treatment period and again three months before expiration of community custody.

What Populations Are Served/Who Is Eligible For These Services?

Adults with charges filed upon them by a county prosecutor or a tribal attorney are eligible to receive treatments services funds with DOSA 3 treatment funding.

How Many People Are Served During The Biennium?

Each program serves 50 clients who will stay in treatment from 90 -180 days. Both facilities just opened in March of 2007 so we anticipate having treatment numbers in the upcoming months.

What is the Role of the Treatment Providers?

The residential treatment provider will supply the court and the DOC with a monthly report regarding the offender's compliance and progress within treatment. Reports will be sent to the court by the treatment provider and DOC on all issues that are a violation of the program, such as failure to arrive, relapse, absconding the facility, failure to progress in treatment, or other violations occurring during the residential treatment period.

What Is The Biennial Funding Amount and Source(s)?

The funding available during the 2007– 2009 biennia was a total of $2,628,000 for 100 treatment beds. An additional 115 treatment beds were approved by the legislature during the last legislative session.

What Agencies Collaborate With DASA To Deliver These Services?

Primary collaborators are the DOC, county human services departments, county judicial administration, tribal government, and state certified treatment agencies. The legislature also created the Criminal Justice Treatment Account (CJTA) panel to oversee the implementation of criminal justice treatment services.

What Are The Sources For Program Data or More Information?

DASA maintains the treatment program data for these services. Information about community supervision, revocations, or custody for these clients is maintained by the DOC.
